As a member of PIBA we must be in a position to place insurance with at least five insurers of the relevant form (life/non-life) and therefore can generally give consumers greater choice than agents and tied agents.

FAIR ANALYSIS

The concept of fair analysis is derived from the Insurance Mediation Directive. It describes the extent of the choice of products and providers offered by an intermediary within a particular category of life assurance, general insurance, mortgages, and/or a specialist area. The number of contracts and providers considered must be sufficiently large to enable an intermediary to recommend a product that would be adequate to meet a client's needs.

The number of providers that constitutes 'sufficiently large' will vary depending on the number of providers operating in the market for a particular product or service and their relative importance in and share of that market. The extent of fair analysis must be such that could be reasonably expected of a professional conducting business, taking into account the accessibility of information and product placement to the intermediaries and the cost of the search.

In order to ensure that the number of contracts and providers is sufficiently large to constitute a fair analysis of the market, we will consider the following criteria:

- The needs of the customer,
- The size of the customer order,
- The number of providers in the market that deal with brokers,
- The market share of each of those providers,
- The number of relevant products available from each provider
- The availability of information about the products/
- The quality of the product and service provided by the provider,
- Cost, and
- Any other relevant consideration.

PRODUCT SUITABILITY

Any failure to disclose material information may invalidate your claim and render your policy void. The suitability of all financial products depends on many factors and we undertake to use our experience and expertise in considering all relevant factors before recommending any product to you. In order for us to fully assess your financial needs it is important that you provide all information we request from you. If you do not do so the advice we provide may not be as suitable had the full information been provided. Before purchasing any product you will be advised of the product's suitability and given a statement of reasons why, in our opinion, the product is suitable for your needs. All advice given will be based on our understanding of current law and Revenue practice. It may be that subsequent changes might affect the recommendations that have been made and these may need to be reviewed as a result.

SUSTAINABLE FINANCE DISCLOSURE REGULATION ("SFDR")

The SFDR sets out harmonised rules on transparency and aims to include environmental, social and governance (ESG) "sustainability" considerations and risks in the decision-making process of investors and asset managers in a consistent manner across the EU financial services sector. A sustainable investment product is where a product is sold as promoting environmental or social characteristics. It is envisaged that greater transparency and sustainability-related information will enable investors to compare financial products and to make informed investment decisions about ESG products.

When providing advice, the firm does not consider the adverse impacts of investment decisions on sustainability. "The firm does not intend to consider such impacts in the future".

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE TO INSURERS AND DUTY OF UTMOST GOOD FAITH

The law in the Republic of Ireland deems insurance to be a special class of contract which imposes onerous duties upon prospective Insured's and their agents, who are obliged to act with utmost good faith towards insurers at all times. In addition they are obliged to disclose to Insurers, before the contract is concluded, all material information that is known to them.

If there is any breach of these duties the Insurers will be entitled to cancel the policy of insurance from inception, if the breach induced the making of the contract on the relevant terms, as well as seeking the recovery of all claims already paid under the policy. These duties of utmost good faith and disclosure also apply to the claims process. In completing a proposal form or claim form or other documentation relating to an insurance policy, the accuracy of all answers, statements and/or information is your sole responsibility.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

Any failure to disclose material information may invalidate your claim and render your policy void.

Opus Financial Ltd., t/a Culleton Financial (97338) is remunerated by commission and other payments from product producers on the completion of business. You may choose to pay in full for our services by means of a fee. Where we receive recurring commission, this forms part of the remuneration for initial advice provided. We reserve the right to charge additional fees if the number of hours relating to on-going advice/assistance exceeds 10 hrs.

In certain circumstances, it will be necessary to charge a fee for services provided. These are listed below for life, non-life business and Standard PRSA's. In other circumstances where fees are chargeable or where you choose to pay in full for our service by fee, we will notify you in writing in advance and agree the scale of fees to be charged if different for fees outlined below.

If we receive commission from a product provider, this will be offset against the fee which we will charge you. Where the commission is greater than the fee due, the commission will become the amount payable to the firm unless an arrangement to the contrary is made.

You may elect to deal with us on a fee basis.

Support Staff	€65

Additional fees may be payable for complex cases or to reflect value, specialist skills or urgency. We will give an estimate of this rate in advance of providing you with services. Where the commission is greater than the fee due, the commission will become the amount payable to the intermediary unless an arrangement to the contrary is made.

REMUNERATION POLICY

We are remunerated by commissions which are paid to us by the product provider and/or fees payable by you. Fees are charged on a time spent and disbursements basis and should a fee apply we will advise you in writing in advance. In the event of you defaulting on any payment of fees, we will, if necessary, exercise our legal rights to recover such monies due. Fees may be charged for advice given irrespective of whether a product is purchased by you. We may receive up to 0.3% commission in respect of deposit accounts.

If we have arranged for your fee to be offset by commissions derived from a life assurance policy, pension or investments deposit that you subsequently cancel, encash in whole or in part, or cease to pay premiums, and in consequence we are obliged to refund commissions paid to us, we reserve the right to charge you a fee to reimburse us for the amount of commission refunded.

If we receive recurring remuneration this will be in respect of the provision to you of product information we believe to be relevant to your circumstances and providing responses to any queries you may have on the contract you have taken out and where requested by you. It will also contribute to your costs arising in supporting you with claims including maturity claims.

You or we may terminate our authority to act on your behalf with immediate effect at any time, but the termination must be communicated in writing (to us at the address shown below) and cannot be backdated. The termination will be without prejudice to the completion of any transactions already initiated and you remain responsible for the payment of any fees and expenses incurred up to the date of termination, or to the date of completion of any transactions in progress, whichever is the later.
